

Axel Miller

axel.miller@skynet.be

Axel Miller is Chief of Staff of the President of the Mouvement Réformateur (MR) since January 2020.

1987-2001: Bar -- Axel graduated with a Law Degree from the Université Libre de Bruxelles in 1987 and worked in Brussels, New York and Paris at Stibbe Simont Monahan Duhot (partner, 1996-1999), Davis Polk & Wardwell and Clifford Chance (partner, 1999-2001) with a specialisation in Commercial Law, Company Law, Mergers and Acquisitions and Financial Law.

2001-2008: Dexia -- He joined Dexia as a member of the Group Executive Committee in 2001, joined the Management Board of Dexia Bank in January 2002 and became its Chairman in January 2003, taking simultaneously responsibility for retail banking activities within the group. On 1 January 2006, Axel Miller became CEO of Dexia until September 2008. During his tenure at Dexia, Axel Miller was also a Director of the Belgian Banking Association and Febelfin, Vice-President of the Management Board of the FEB (Federation of Enterprises of Belgium) and Secretary General of the ICLC (International Center for Local Credit). He was a member of the Belgian Corporate Governance Committee between 2004 and 2010.

2009-2012: Petercam -- Between 2009 and 2012, Axel was Chairman of the Management Board of Petercam SA, one of the leading independent Belgian asset management and securities houses with offices in Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Switzerland and New York.

2013-2019: D'leteren -- Axel Miller was CEO of D'leteren SA, a listed investment company between 2013 and 2019. During his tenure, Axel was the Chairman of the boards of D'leteren Auto, Belron and Moleskine.

He is chairman of the Board of directors of Carmeuse SA, one of the two leading lime producers worldwide and a director of Spadel SA and Duvel Moortgat NV.